

SECOND BILATERAL HUNGARIAN AND SERBIAN PARASITOLOGY SOCIETIES MEETING

October 14, 2016

Venue: Szeged Zoo, Learning Center

PROGRAM:

10:00-11:30 Get together and refreshment

11:30-13:30 Round table

Introductory presentations and moderators:

Róbert Farkas and Olgica Djurković-Djaković

1. Róbert Farkas, President of the Hungarian Society for Parasitology:
Current information about teaching and research in veterinary parasitology in Hungary
2. István Kucsera, member of the board of the Hungarian Society for Parasitology: Some information about human parasitology in Hungary
3. Olgica Djurković-Djaković, President of the Serbian Society for Parasitology:
Parasitology teaching and research in Serbia. SWAT analysis

Scientific lectures

4. Snežana Tomanović, Institute for Medical Research, University of Belgrade, Serbia:
Medical entomology in Serbia. Wild animals as hosts for anthropophilic tick species
5. Sándor Szekeres, University of Veterinary Medicine Budapest, Hungary:
Tick-borne pathogens in Hungary: Rural vs urban habitats

13:30 Lunch and visit of the ZOO

18:00 End of meeting